

GENERAL CONDITIONS OF SALES

Article 1. Scope and applicability of the General Terms of Sale

These general terms of sale sent to the Client form a contractual whole, constituting the entire contractual relationship between the Campsite and its Clients.

This contractual whole governs the sales of stays by the Campsite and will be considered valid from the moment the order is placed, to the exclusion of any other conditions.

The Campsite reserves the right to modify its general terms and conditions at any time. However, the version which will apply to the Client is that accepted by him at the time he made his reservation.

Article 2. Acceptance of the General Terms of Sale

The Client is considered to have unconditionally accepted these General Terms of Sale, in accordance with the provisions of article 1126 of the French Civil Code. The Client is therefore informed that by ticking the box marked "I confirm that I have read the General Terms of Sale" when placing his order via the internet or upon receipt the booking confirmation email accompanied by these terms and conditions, he is expressing his specific, free and informed consent, including in particular with regard to the use of his personal data. This unconditional acceptance is valid both for the Client and for any person participating in the stay. These General Terms of Sale are also available on the Campsite's website and at the Campsite's Reception.

Article 3. Reservation

3.1 Reservation conditions

Reservation method – The Client can reserve online, by telephone or at the Campsite.

Any request for a reservation is considered as a firm reservation from the moment it is accepted by the Campsite. The Campsite is free to refuse the reservation according to availability or to any circumstances likely have a negative impact on the envisaged stay.

The acceptance of the reservation will be confirmed exclusively by the sending of a reservation confirmation by e-mail, by post or delivered personally.

To be confirmed, all reservations must also be accompanied by a payment including:

- A down payment of 30% to 100% of the total cost of the stay according to the reservation date;
- The administration charge for the reservation;
- Any possible costs of taking out insurance against the cancellation / interruption of your stay.

Electronic signature for online sales – The online provision of the client's bank card number and the final confirmation of the order constitute proof of the client's agreement to the billing of the sums due for the reservation and his signature and express acceptance of all transactions and operations performed.

Capacity and participants in the stay – The reservation is made on a personal, named basis. The Client must be at least 18 years of age, must participate in the reserved stay and must supply the last names, first names and dates of birth of all participants including minors and babies. The Campsite reserves the right to refuse any person not listed at the time the reservation was made. Any incorrect information may result in the stay being cancelled. Due to the personal and named nature of the reservation, this cannot be transferred or totally or partially sub-let without the Campsite's prior, written and express consent. For safety, security and insurance reasons, the maximum number of occupants allowed for each accommodation type/pitch as stated in the brochure and the website must be respected. The Campsite will refuse any person in excess of this maximum capacity (including babies) with the exception of any possible visitors invited by the Client.

Groups – The Campsite proposes stays for families, with accommodation specially designed for this purpose. The Campsite reserves the right to refuse any reservation which does not match the available reception and accommodation capacities.

The Campsite considers that any reservation for five mobile homes / pitches or more made by the same person or by different people but who know one another and are travelling together for the same purpose on the same dates and to the same Campsite as constituting a group. All requests for group reservations should be submitted by e-mail to the address callcenter@cielavillage.com or by telephone to 04.22.54.73.55 (price of a local call depending on your operator) specifying that this is a request for a group reservation. The Campsite reserves the right to examine the request before accepting or refusing it.

3.2 Important information

Welcoming minors – For obvious safety and security reasons (swimming pool, evacuation of the Campsite in an emergency, etc.) and on health grounds (hospitalisation, etc.), minors who are not accompanied by their legal guardians in the terms of article 389 of the Civil Code are not allowed. Furthermore, in accordance with decree 2002-883 of 3 May 2002, the Campsite is not authorised to provide group or individual stays outside the family home for minors aged under 18 who are not accompanied by one of their legal guardians. In the case of minors accompanied by their legal guardians, they are placed under the sole responsibility and liability of the latter and must under no circumstances be left unattended within the Campsite perimeter (including the water park).

The non-contractual nature of communication aids – Any document other than these General Terms of Sale, including catalogues, prospectuses, advertising and notices, are provided for information purposes only and are non-contractual in nature. The maps and photos of the rented accommodation are provided for information purposes only. The layout and characteristics of the rooms may vary from one model to another. You should refer to the written description of the layout in the accommodation section on the Campsite's web page, which gives you the exact composition of each form of rented accommodation. A description is also available inside each rented accommodation unit.

The Campsite's facilities and activities – It may be the case that some activities and facilities proposed by the Campsite (either directly or via service providers), such as the WiFi or attractions in the water park as shown in the descriptions are unavailable, including for climatic reasons or cases of force majeure or are not working, particularly at the start or end of the holiday season. The Campsite may not be considered liable as a result. The Campsite will inform the Client of any possible building work/hazards/conversion or layout work being undertaken during the stay.

Article 4. Prices

The applicable prices are those shown at the time the reservation is made, whether by telephone, over the Internet or at the Campsite. These may change throughout the season and are displayed in euros, inclusive of VAT.

They are firm and final.

Any subsequent changes to the applicable VAT rate occurring between the time the prices were determined and the time the stay is billed will result in a proportional modification to the VAT-inclusive price, which the Client unreservedly accepts.

The price includes:

- The rental of the pitch or the equipped rented accommodation as described in the brochure and on the websites;
- The consumption of water, gas and electricity;
- Access to the Campsite, to its equipment / facilities and activities (except those listed below) as shown in the brochure and on the websites;

- The paid on-site activities proposed by the Campsite;
- Surcharges such as cleaning costs;
- Security deposits;

Article 5. Payment terms and methods

5.1 Payment terms

The total price for the stay is payable:

- 30 days before the stay begins;
- Or immediately for any reservation made less than 30 days before the stay begins.

Unless payment in full is received at the due date, the Campsite may consider that the Client has cancelled his reservation and may then retain any sums possibly already paid.

5.2 Payment methods

The payment methods accepted by the Campsite for the down payment and/or the total cost of the stay vary according to the payment date:

- If payment is made at least 30 days before the arrival date: it can be made by bankcard, by bank transfer, by holiday vouchers (sent by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt) or Connect holiday vouchers and by cheque in Euros (sent by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt).

5.3 Information concerning bankcard payments

The bankcards accepted are those from the Carte Bleue, Visa or Eurocard/Mastercard networks. American Express is not accepted. The transaction is immediately debited from the Client's bankcard after checking the card details. Pursuant to article L.132-2 of the Monetary and Financial Code, the commitment to pay entered into by means of a bankcard is irreversible. By providing his bankcard information either online or by telephone, the Client authorises the Campsite to debit his bankcard at the time the down payment or the total cost of the stay are settled. Accordingly, the Client confirms that he is the holder of the bankcard to be debited and that the name shown on his bankcard is his own. If he finds his bankcard is being used fraudulently, the moment such usage is discovered the Client is invited to contact our reservation centre on 04.22.54.73.55 (price of a local call depending on your operator).

Article 6. Services not included in the price

6.1. Administration charges

The administration charges are payable for each named reservation. These charges are set by the Campsite at the time the reservation is made. They are payable at the time the reservation is made and are non-refundable.

The tourist tax is collected on behalf of the local authorities and is mandatory on some campsites. The level of this tax is determined per person and per day according to the destinations and may be modified during the year.

6.3. Paid activities proposed by the Campsite, to be paid for on-site

Some of the activities proposed by the Campsite or by one of its service providers are optional, with payment being required for them. It is hereby stipulated that payment is not required for access to the Campsite's water park.

6.4. Cleaning costs

The Client may request that cleaning be carried out by the Campsite for a cleaning fee of a variable amount depending on the range of the mobile home 48 hours before departure at the latest. The cleaning charge does not include cleaning the kitchen dishes, crockery, cutlery and utensils and the rubbish bins must be thrown away.

Regarding the use of planchas/gas barbecues, if they are not sufficiently clean upon departure, a flat fee of €50 will be deducted from the deposit to cover cleaning costs, within a maximum period of 48 hours.

6.5. The security deposit

For all stays at the Campsite, a security deposit of €100 for the pitches (in case of fridge or gas barbecue rental) and €250 for the rented accommodation will be payable at the latest on the date you arrive at the Campsite. This may be paid by bankcard or in cash. The deposit will be returned in full on the day you leave or at the latest within 15 days after checks to ascertain that the cleaning has been done and that the equipment has been left in a satisfactory condition. Failing this, the deposit will be retained in full. Any damage or deterioration exceeding the sum paid as the security deposit will be at the Client's cost following the deduction of the security deposit.

In the case of a security deposit paid in cash, if the Client wishes to have the deposit returned immediately after his departure, he must make an appointment at the latest the day before his departure to arrange an inspection and inventory of his accommodation.

6.6. The guarantee of a specific pitch / Preferred pitch option

To facilitate planning, the pitches and accommodation are assigned by the Campsite according to availability. These pitch allocations may be modified at any time before the keys have been handed over. Only the location, dates and accommodation type are guaranteed unless the Client has chosen the “Preferred pitch option”. If the location of his choice is available or if he wishes to be adjacent to another it will be assigned to him in return for the payment of a fixed sum of €30.

The Campsite cannot be held responsible if the Client does not indicate the correct category of equipment (and its dimensions) when booking and the pitch allocated is unsuitable. Only one piece of motorized camping equipment is allowed per pitch.

6.8. Prohibition to charge electric vehicles from domestic sockets on the rented pitch

Some Ciela Village campsites are equipped with electric vehicle charging points for a fee to facilitate your stay. Recharging electric vehicles from domestic sockets on the campsite pitches is strictly forbidden. The campsite's electrical installation is dedicated to the proper functioning of the accommodation and infrastructure and is absolutely not suitable for recharging guests' personal vehicles. Assuming that the Customer does not respect the said ban regarding charging spots, a first warning will be dropped off on the vehicle. For each new recharge after this warning, a lump sum of 150 € tax included will be deducted from the Customer's security deposit.

The Campsite proposes optional equipment such as baby kits, refrigerator, sheets, towels, barbecue, etc. Some equipment is already included in the Privilege, Prestige and Exception range. This equipment is supplied upon request and subject to availability.

Article 7. Partner discounts and promotional offers

The promotional offers are subject to certain conditions and cannot be combined with one another unless stated otherwise. The “partner” discounts and promotional offers cannot be applied to a reservation which has already been paid for wholly or partially. On such occasions it is therefore possible that clients will have paid different prices for the same stays. The clients having paid a higher sum may under no circumstances be refunded the difference between the price they paid and the promotional price. To benefit from a partner discount, the Client must provide proof of entitlement to the said discount in accordance with the terms agreed with the service provider. The recipients of “partner” benefits must effectively be the named persons in whose name the reservation is made. The Campsite will check that the offer applies. In the event of fraud, the amount concerned by the reduction will be claimed back from the Client.

Article 8. Withdrawal

The Client is hereby informed that in application of article L. 121-20-4 of the French Consumer Code, the sale of accommodation services provided on a given date or during a given period is not subject to the provisions of the withdrawal period applicable to distance selling. No right of withdrawal therefore applies to the sale of stays by the Campsite. However, this waiver does not apply for any possible insurance taken out (subject to a 14-day period pursuant to and within the scope of the legal provisions).

Article 9. Modifications to the reservation / stay

Any request to make a modification must be received at least 10 days before the start of the stay. The Campsite will make every effort to grant the request, according to availability and to the applicable prices. If the modification proves impossible or is not accepted, the Client must undertake his stay in accordance with the conditions initially arranged, or must cancel it.

- If a request is received more than 30 days before your arrival day, you will be able to change the dates, the category of accommodation or the supplements for your stay. If the final balance is changed, you shall settle any outstanding supplements before arriving on site. If those changes result in a lower balance, the difference will be refunded.

- Between 30 to 10 days before your arrival day: You will be able to change your dates of stay or the type of accommodation according to availability. However, if the balance is less than the initial cost of the holiday, no refund will be made.

Cancellations of optional services (pets, bed linen and towels, cleaning, plancha grill, refrigerator, additional participants) are free of charge as long as the balance of the stay has not yet been paid. If the cancellation occurs after the balance has been paid, optional services will be refunded up to 10 days before arrival at the campsite. After this period, no refund can be granted.

- Less than 10 days before your arrival day: no changes will be made to the dates of your stay or to the type of accommodation selected. The supplements cannot be cancelled either.

If supplements are added to the stay, payment must be made immediately.

Article 10. Cancellation of a stay (outside the scope of the cancellation/interruption insurance)

10.1 Cancellation by the Campsite

Other than in force majeure circumstances, a total refund will be issued for the stay. This cancellation may under no circumstances result in the payment of compensation or damages.

10.2 Total or partial cancellation by the Client

It is the Client's responsibility to inform the Campsite by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt, sent to the Campsite's address or by sending an e-mail to the following address: callcenter@cielavillage.com.

Any possible cancellation charges will be determined according to the date on which the cancellation is received.

Should written notification not be received in accordance with the above-mentioned conditions, the Client will be required to settle all sums due for the reservation.

- Any booking or pre-booking made before 31/12/2025 may be cancelled free of charge up until that same date.
